

Mediterranean Academy of Culture, Tourism and Trade

Inlingua Malta is proud for having been designated as a cultural correspondent by the Mediterranean Academy of Culture, Tourism and Trade during the Charity Gala Dinner held at the Meridien Hotel in St. Julians under the distinguished patronage of her Excellency Marie-Louise Coleiro Preca – President of Malta.

In order to sustain educational freedom, inlingua worked hard together with MACTT to identify a shared platform that includes actions on the planning of culture in the digital age.

Being an English language school, we believe in integrating different cultures under one common educational structure.

Our partnership with the Mediterranean Academy of Culture, Tourism and Trade is yet another step to achieve integration between people, sustainable environmental strategies and new economies for an authentic network between different countries in the Mediterranean.

