Welcome to inlingua Malta

Dear Prospective Students and Partners,

We are delighted to welcome you to inlingua School of Languages, where our legacy in English language education runs deep. The school was founded by our father and grandfather, Maurice Portelli, a true pioneer in the English Language Teaching (ELT) industry in Malta. His vision and dedication laid the foundation for what has become one of the most respected language schools in the country. Together, we continue to build on this legacy, further elevating our school's reputation.

Over the years, we have had the privilege of partnering with numerous educational institutions and organizations worldwide. Together, we have welcomed thousands of students through our doors. Each of these students has contributed to the vibrant and diverse learning community that we cherish today. Quality has always been our primary objective, and we are committed to providing not just an education, but a lifelong experience that enriches the lives of our students.

We are truly blessed to have had the opportunity to work with so many talented professionals within this global industry. Their expertise and passion have helped shape the exceptional learning environment that inlingua is known for. As we look to the future, we eagerly anticipate welcoming even more students, continuing our role as a key player in the ELT industry in Malta, and expanding our collaborations with partners worldwide. Together, we strive to deliver outstanding service to all our clients.

Innovation and the creation of lasting memories are at the heart of what we do. We are excited about the possibilities that lie ahead and look forward to the many new experiences we will share with our students and partners.
